Overview of Operations

Business Overview:

Through its wholly owned subsidiary, Eco Oil and Gas (Namibia) (Pty) Ltd., the Company holds three offshore petroleum licenses in Namibia (the “Offshore Licenses”), being (i) petroleum exploration license number 0030 (the “Cooper License”), (ii) petroleum exploration license number 0033 (the “Sharon License”), and (iii) petroleum exploration license number 0034 (the “Guy License”), and one license that consists of both onshore and offshore portions, being CBM and petroleum exploration license number 0031 (the “Daniel License”, and collectively with the Offshore Licenses, the “Licenses”). The terms of the Licenses are governed by petroleum agreements (each, a “Eco Petroleum Agreement” and collectively, the “Eco Petroleum Agreements”), for each of the Licenses, dated March 7, 2011, as amended from time to time, between the Company and Namibia’s Ministry of Mines and Energy (the “Ministry”).

Upon the completion of the Amalgamation, the Company, through PAO Namibia, acquired the Namibian petroleum exploration licenses held by PAO (the “PAO Licenses”), being (i) petroleum exploration license number 50 (the “PAO 50 License”), and (ii) petroleum exploration license number 51 (the “PAO 51 License”), both located offshore in the economical waters of Namibia. The terms of the PAO Licenses are governed by petroleum agreements (each, a “PAO Petroleum Agreement” and collectively, the “PAO Petroleum Agreements”), for each of the PAO Licenses, dated October 28, 2011, between PAO Namibia and the Ministry.

Through Eco Ghana, the Company is a party to the Ghana Petroleum Agreement setting out the terms of the Company’s operations on the Ghana Block. As discussed above, the Ghana Petroleum Agreement is subject to certain conditions.

The Company is in the development stage and has not yet commenced principal drillings operations other than acquiring and analyzing certain pertinent geological data. The Company is currently engaged in the exploration and development of its properties to determine whether commercially exploitable quantities of oil and gas are present.

The locations of the Licenses are indicated on the map below:

Cooper License

The Cooper License covers approximately 5,800 square kilometers and is located in license area 2012A offshore in the economical waters of Namibia (the “Cooper Block”). The Company holds a 32.5% working interest in the Cooper License, the National Petroleum Corporation of Namibia (“NAMCOR”) holds a 10% working interest, AziNam Ltd (“AziNam”), holds a 32.5% working interest, and Tullow Kudu Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Tullow Oil plc (“Tullow”), holds a 25% working interest. The Company, AziNam and Tullow proportionally carry NAMCOR’s working interest during the exploration period.

Pursuant to the AziNam Farmout Agreement, AziNam will fund 40% of the Company’s share cost for the first 500 square kilometer of a 1,000 square kilometer 3D seismic survey on the Cooper Block (capped at US$2,080,000).

Pursuant to the farmout agreement with Tullow, dated July 17, 2014 (the “Tullow Farmout Agreement”), Tullow will carry the Company’s share of costs to execute and process a 1,000 square kilometer 3D seismic survey (capped at US$4.103 million), the execution of which was completed on November 2014. The processing of the survey is expected to be concluded by September 2015, and the interpretation is expected to commence immediately thereafter. If Tullow elects to participate in the drilling of an exploration well on the Cooper Block, Tullow will acquire an additional 15% working interest in the Cooper License, will carry the Company’s share of costs to drill the exploration well (capped at $18.17 million) and will reimburse the Company for 15% of its past costs (the “Second Transfer”). There is no guarantee that the Second Transfer will be completed.

The exploration activity on the Cooper License is performed in the framework of a joint operating agreement among the Company, NAMCOR, AziNam, and Tullow (the “Cooper JOA”). Under the Cooper JOA, the Company is designated the operator of the Cooper License. However, Tullow may replace the Company as the operator (i) upon the closing of the Second Transfer, or (ii) on an earlier date, provided Tullow commits to the drilling of an exploration well on the Cooper Block.

Pursuant to the Eco Petroleum Agreements, the Company is required to undertake specific exploration activities on each of the Licenses during each phase of development (each, an “Exploration Activity”). In the Eco Petroleum Agreements, monetary values have been allocated to each Exploration Activity based on information available at the time of their execution. The Company will be relieved of quoted expenditures for a given Exploration Activity if the Company completes the Exploration Activity at a lower cost. Based on recent exploration activity in Namibia and the current oil services market, management expects the actual expenditures on the Exploration Activities to be much less than that provided in the Eco Petroleum Agreements.

As of the date hereof, the remaining Exploration Activities and the aggregate expenditure as provided in the Petroleum Agreement for the Cooper Licenses for each year of exploration is as follows:

Environmental Regulation

The Company's activities may be subject to environmental regulations, which may cover a wide variety of matters. It is likely that environmental legislation and permitting will evolve in a manner which will require stricter standards and enforcement. This may include increased fines and penalties for non-compliance, more stringent environmental assessments of proposed projects and a higher degree of responsibility for companies, their directors and employees.

The Company does not believe that any provision for such costs is currently required and is unable to determine the impact on its financial position, if any, of environmental laws and regulations that may be enacted in the future due to the uncertainty surrounding the form that these laws and regulations may take.

Exploration and evaluation assets and expenditures

For oil and gas prospects not commercially viable and financially feasible, the Company expenses exploration and evaluation expenditures as incurred. Exploration and evaluation expenditures include acquisition costs of oil and gas prospects, property option payments and evaluation activities. Exploration and evaluation expenditures associated with a business combination or asset acquisition are capitalized.

Once a project has been established as commercially viable and technically feasible, related development expenditures are capitalized. This includes costs incurred in preparing the site for production operations. Capitalization ceases when the oil and natural gas reserves are capable of commercial production, with the exception of development costs that give rise to a future benefit. Exploration and evaluation expenditures are capitalized if the Company can demonstrate that these expenditures meet the criteria of an identifiable intangible asset.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Financial Statements have been prepared on a going concern basis whereby the Company is assumed to be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations. The Financial Statements do not reflect adjustments that would be necessary if the going concern assumption were not appropriate. If the going concern assumption was not appropriate for the Financial Statements, then adjustments of a material nature would be necessary in the carrying value of assets such as petroleum and natural gas licenses, liabilities, the reported expenses, and the balance sheet classifications used. Management continues to pursue financing opportunities for the Company to ensure that it will have sufficient cash to carry out its planned exploration program beyond the next year.

Cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2015 compared to year ended March 31, 2014

During the year ended March 31, 2015, the Company's overall position of cash and cash equivalents increased by $6,489,512. This increase in cash can be attributed to the following activities:

The Company's net cash generated from operating activities during the year ended March 31, 2015 was $3,935,780 as compared to cash used in operating activities of $2,825,372 for the year ended March 31, 2014. This main reason for the increase is due to the Tullow Farmout Agreement and AziNam Farmout Agreement signed during the year, for which the Company received a total of $5,595,007 in cash. The Company's two main operating costs, being the 3D Seismic program on the Cooper License and the 2D seismic program on the Guy License, were carried by our partner's on the respective licenses.

Cash generated from investing activities during the year ended March 31, 2015 was nil as compared to $202,276 during the year ended March 31, 2014. The generation of cash from investment activities in the prior year is due the release of short-term investments to cash and cash equivalents.

Cash provided by financing activities for the year ended March 31, 2015 was $2,913,732 as compared to nil during the year ended March 31, 2015. The cash provided during the period is primarily as a result of the Amalgamation with PAO.

As discussed above, pursuant to the Eco Petroleum Agreement and the PAO Petroleum Agreements, the Company is required to undertake specific exploration activities on each of the Licenses and the PAO Licenses during each phase of development. (See "Business Overview" for information on the Company's commitments.)

Management estimates that, to date, the Company has incurred costs of approximately $23 million towards exploration work on the Licenses and CBM exploration license number 0032 (the "Relinquished License"), of which the Company relinquished in July 2013. These expenses, less those relating to the Relinquished License, are reflected in its Financial Statements, under various categories of expenses, including operating costs, general and administrative costs, consulting and professional fees, and compensation expenses.

The Company is currently engaged in the exploration and development of the Licenses in order to assess the existence of commercially exploitable quantities of oil and gas and to determine if additional resources should be allocated to these Licenses as per the work program commitments set out herein. The Company has completed the minimum exploration work required to date for each of the Licenses.

The Company has no revenue producing operations and continues to manage its costs, focusing on its higher potential licenses as described above. It also continues to seek funding in the capital markets and to pursue additional joint venture and farm-in opportunities with other suitable companies having access to capital, in order to meet its exploratory commitments and development strategy for the next 18 months.

Although the Company has been successful in raising funds to date, there can be no assurance that adequate funding will be available in the future, or available under terms favorable to the Company. See “Risk Factors” below.

Off-Balance Sheet Agreements

As of the date of this MD&A, the Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have, a current or future effect on its results of operations or financial condition, including, and without limitation, such consolidations as liquidity, capital expenditure and capital resources that would be considered material to investors.

Contractual Commitments

Licenses

The Company is committed to meeting all of the conditions of its licenses as discussed above, including annual lease renewal or extension fees as needed.

Leases

The Company has office lease commitments as follows:

2016	$ 96,901
2017	85,200
2018	28,400
Total	$ 210,501

Financial Instruments

Other risks and uncertainties the Company faces at present are market risk and foreign exchange risk.

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in interest rates, foreign exchange rates and oil and gas. An extended period of depressed oil and gas prices could make access to capital more difficult and the Company is dependent on capital markets to fund its exploration and ultimately, its development programs.

Foreign exchange risk arises since most of the Company's costs are in currencies other than the Canadian dollar. Fluctuations in exchange rates between the Canadian dollar and the U.S. dollar could materially affect the Company's financial position. Management periodically considers reducing the effect of exchange risk through the use of forward currency contracts but has not entered into any such contracts to date.

Risks and Uncertainties

The business of exploring for, developing and producing oil and gas reserves is inherently risky. The Company is in the development stage and has not determined whether its Licenses contain economically recoverable reserves. The Company's future viability is dependent on the existence of oil and gas reserves and on the ability of the Company to obtain financing for its exploration programs and development of such reserves and ultimately on the profitability of operations or disposition of its oil and gas interests.

The Company's actual exploration and operating results may be very different from those expected as at the date of this MD&A.

For a complete discussion on risk factors, please refer to the Company's Annual Information Form dated July 29, 2015, filed under the Company's profile at www.sedar.com.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The Company's critical accounting estimates are defined as those estimates that have a significant impact on the portrayal of its financial position and operations and that require management to make judgments, assumptions and estimates in the application of IFRS. Judgments, assumptions and estimates are based on historical experience and other factors that management believes to be reasonable under current conditions. As events occur and additional information is obtained, these judgments, assumptions and estimates may be subject to change. The Company believes the following are the critical accounting estimates used in the preparation of its consolidated financial statements. The Company's significant accounting policies can be found in note 3 of the Company's Financial Statements.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as at the date of the Financial Statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Such estimates related to unsettled transactions and events as of the date of the Financial Statements. Accordingly, actual results may differ from these estimated amounts as future confirming events occur.

Significant estimates used in the preparation of the Company's Financial Statements include, but are not limited to, impairment of exploration license costs capitalized in accordance with IFRS, stock based compensation and future income taxes.

The impairment of exploration licenses is dependent on the existence of economically recoverable reserves, the ability to obtain financing to complete the development and exploitation of such reserves, its ability to meet its obligations under various agreements and the success of future operations or dispositions.

Stock Based Compensation

The Company uses the fair value method, utilizing the Black-Scholes option pricing model, for valuing stock options granted to directors, officers, consultants and employees. The estimated fair value is recognized over the applicable vesting period as stock-based compensation expense. The recognized costs are subject to the estimation of what the ultimate payout will be using pricing models such as the Black-Scholes model which is based on significant assumptions such as volatility, dividend yield and expected term.

Income Taxes

The Company follows the liability method of accounting for income taxes whereby future income taxes are recognized based on the differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities reported in the audited consolidated annual financial statements of the Company and their respective tax basis. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized at the tax rates at which Management expects the temporary differences to reverse. Management bases this expectation on future earnings, which require estimates for reserves, timing of production, crude oil price, operating cost estimates and foreign exchange rates. Management assesses, based on all available evidence, the likelihood that the deferred income tax assets will be recovered from future taxable income and a valuation allowance is provided to the extent that it is more than likely that deferred income tax assets will not be realized. As a result, future earnings are subject to significant Management judgment.

Changes in Accounting Policies

Policies not yet adopted

IFRS 9, “Financial Instruments: Classification and Measurement”, effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018, with early adoption permitted, introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial instruments. Management anticipates that this standard will be adopted in the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year beginning April 1, 2018 and has not yet considered the potential impact of the adoption of IFRS 9.

IFRS 15, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers", effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2017, with early adoption permitted, replaces existing revenue standards and interpretations with a single standard and provides additional guidance on revenue recognition for contracts with customers. Management anticipates that this standard will be adopted in the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year beginning April 1, 2017 and has not yet considered the potential impact of the adoption of IFRS 15.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures and Internal Controls over Financial Reporting

Management has established processes to provide it with sufficient knowledge to support representations that it has exercised reasonable diligence to ensure that (i) the consolidated financial statements do not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated or that is necessary to make a statement not misleading in light of the circumstances under which it is made, as of the date of and for the periods presented by the consolidated financial statements, and (ii) the consolidated financial statements fairly present in all material respects the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company, as of the date of and for the periods presented.

In contrast to the certificate required for non-venture issuers under National Instrument 52-109 – Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings (“NI 52-109”), the Venture Issuer Basic Certificate does not include representations relating to the establishment and maintenance of disclosure controls and procedures (“DC&P”) and internal control over financial reporting (“ICFR”), as defined in NI 52-109. In particular, the certifying officers filing this certificate are not making any representations relating to the establishment and maintenance of:

- (i) controls and other procedures designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by the issuer in its annual filings, interim filings or other reports filed or submitted under securities legislation is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in securities legislation; and
- (ii) a process to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of consolidated financial statements for external purposes in accordance with the issuer's GAAP (IFRS).

The issuer's certifying officers are responsible for ensuring that processes are in place to provide them with sufficient knowledge to support the representations they are making in the certificate. Investors should be aware that inherent limitations on the ability of certifying officers of a venture issuer to design and implement on a cost-effective basis DC&P and ICFR as defined in NI 52-109 may result in additional risks to the quality, reliability, transparency and timeliness of interim and annual filings and other reports provided under securities legislation.
